How does the University handle lost time due to on-the job injuries? The day an employee is injured is not considered to be lost time. If a work-related injury/illness rebe off the job, the days following the injury/illness will be covered by their accrued sick leave throremai	