

ABOUT THIS CATALOG

This catalog supersedes all previous catalogs and academic information and policies and is binding on all students. It was prepared on the basis of the best information available at the time of publication. However, students continue a course of study in effect at the time they enrolled provided that no more than the normal period is taken to complete the program. The University reserves the right to change tuition, fees, course offerings, regulations and admission and graduation requirements at any time without prior notice.

This catalog, posted on the YU Web site, is the official catalog. Printed versions are copies of the catalog. If there are corrections or changes, they will be published as dated revisions yearly September to mid-January; the spring term runs from late January to late May. Classes meet Sunday through Friday. There is a limited undergraduate summer session. The University is not responsible for interruptions beyond its control.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Yeshiva University is committed to a policy of equal opportunity and nondiscrimination in admissions and all other facets of its educational programs and activities. The responsibility for the University's affirmative action/equal opportunity and unlawful harassment policy lies with all deans, chairpersons, department heads, directors, administrators, managers and supervisors in their areas of responsibility and requires the commitment of the entire University community.

Administrative and investigative responsibility has been assigned to the affirmative action administrator. Inquiries relating to affirmative action or equal opportunity issues, including pursuing a possible violation of the policy, should be directed to Yeshiva University's Affirmative Action Administrator, Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Jack and Pearl Resnick Campus, 1300 Morris Park Avenue, Bronx, NY 10462-1602; 718.430.2552.

ACCREDITATION

Yeshiva University is accredited by the Commission on Higher Education Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and by the appropriate professional agencies: the Liaison Committee on Medical Education of the American Medical Association, the Association of the American Medical Colleges, the American Psychological Association, the American Bar Association, the Commission on Accreditation of the Council on Social Work Education, the Association of Institutions of Higher Learning for Jewish Education and the National Board of License for Hebrew Teachers.

SAFETY & SECURITY

Yeshiva University takes its responsibility for on-campus security very seriously and makes every effort to offer its students, faculty and staff a safe and comfortable environment by working closely with the local community and with law enforcement agencies. Even though there is a very low rate of crime on our campuses, federal law requires us to make crime statistics available. You can find them at <http://ope.ed.gov/security>. Search for Yeshiva University, then click on a particular campus. At the bottom of each page, you can select various categories of crime statistics to view. You can also contact YU Security at 212.960.5221 for more information.

While emergency events on campus are unlikely, it is vital to be prepared to react accordingly during emergencies to ensure your safety. To get prepared and learn about emergency response at Yeshiva University, visit our Emergency Readiness website: www.yu.edu/safety-security/emergency.
